CURRENT ACCOUNTS MADE EASY

A current account can help you to manage your money more easily. You can receive income such as your wages, benefits and pension and pay your bills easily. It can also help you access your money whenever and wherever you need it. You can:

- Make cash withdrawals using your ATM cash or VISA debit card
- Get cash back from some shops or supermarkets with a VISA debit card
- Pay your bills by Direct Debit or Standing Order—some companies give discounts for paying by Direct Debit
- Have your wages, benefits and tax credits paid directly into your account.

This account does not have an overdraft facility. You can only pay for things using the actual money in your account.

LOANS MADE EASY

Don't pay more for loans with high cost providers such as store cards, credit cards or doorstep lenders.

- No minimum loan amount
- No arrangement fee
- No early repayment penalties
- Flexible payment periods
- Loans usually covered by free life insurance.*

Interest rates for loans range from 1% per month (12.68% APR) to a maximum of 2% per month (26.8% APR).
