Mandatory 'must' requirements
Code Section	Code requirement	Comply – Yes (with evidence, commentary, and any explanations)	Comply – No	Action
1.2	A complaint must be defined as:  'an expression of dissatisfaction, however made, about the standard of service, actions or lack of action by the organisation, its own staff, or those acting on its behalf, affecting an individual resident or group of residents.'	Yes.  Included within policy statement.
1.3	The resident does not have to use the word 'complaint' for it to be treated as such. A complaint that is submitted via a third party or representative must still be handled in line with the landlord's complaints policy.	Yes – although Customer Voice Panel would like us to strengthen this – see action column.  Included within policy statement; strengthened to clarify position with regards to MP and Cllr correspondence on behalf of complainants.		Internal complaints campaign to ensure colleagues across the business are aware of the definition and process.  [Target 30/09/2023 – Director of Customer and Communities &amp; Head of Comms &amp; Marketing]
1.6	... if further enquiries are needed to resolve the matter, or if the resident requests it, the issue must be logged as a complaint.	Yes.  Included within policy statement.
1.7	A landlord must accept a complaint unless there is a valid reason not to do so.	Yes.  Policy sets out the circumstances under which a complaint would not be accepted. No complaints refused to date.
1.8	A complaints policy must clearly set out the circumstances in which a matter will not be considered, and these circumstances	Yes.  As above.

	should be fair and reasonable to residents.
1.9	If a landlord decides not to accept a complaint, a detailed explanation must be provided to the resident setting out the reasons why the matter is not suitable for the complaints process and the right to take that decision to the Ombudsman.	Yes. Included within policy statement.

--------------	------------------	--	-------------	--------

4.3	Landlords should manage residents' expectations from the outset, being clear where a desired outcome is unreasonable or unrealistic.	Yes. Detailed within procedure.
4.4	A complaint should be resolved at the earliest possible opportunity, having assessed what evidence is needed to fully consider the issues, what outcome would resolve the matter for the resident and whether there are any urgent actions required.	Yes. Detailed within procedure.
4.5	Landlords should give residents the opportunity to have a representative deal with their complaint on their behalf, and to be represented or accompanied at any meeting with the landlord where this is reasonable.	Yes. Included with policy and procedure. Complaint acknowledgement also makes this clear.
4.8	Where a key issue of a complaint relates to the parties legal obligations landlords should clearly set out their understanding of the obligations of both parties.	Yes. Detailed within procedure.
4.9	Communication with the resident should not generally identify individual members of staff or contractors.	Yes. Detailed within procedure.
4.10	Landlords should keep residents regularly updated about the progress of the investigation.	Yes. Detailed within procedure.
4.16	Landlords should seek feedback from residents in relation to the landlord's complaint handling as part of the drive to encourage a positive complaint and learning culture.	Yes – although Customer Voice Panel would like us to strengthen this – see action column.  Tenant Satisfaction Measures survey completed for 22/23 and due to formally commence in 23/24.  Involved customer group (Freebridge Service Champions) scrutinise and feedback on complaint handling as part of their Terms of Reference.		New process for obtaining transactional feedback after complaint closure to be established; must ensure the process is accessible to as many customers as possible and also test whether the process has been accessible itself – to be
